

On Wednesday Dec. 4, 2013, at approximately 1:30 p.m., Vanderbilt University Police took a suspect into custody for the incident below. The suspect has confessed and criminal charges have been filed.

Please remember to stay vigilant and utilize our campus safety resources such as Vandy Vans and walking escorts.

On 12/2/13 at approximately 12:15 PM a student contacted VUPD to report that an unknown black male with a thin build, small beard, and short afro style hair exposed himself to the student behind the Sigma Nu House. The suspect was reportedly sitting in a 4 door black Honda Civic and called the student over to ask for directions to the bookstore. The student noticed he was not wearing pants or underwear.

If you have information about this or a similar incident, please call The Vanderbilt University Police Department at (615) 322-2745.