

Two incidents of Sexual Assault were reported to Campus Security Authorities (CSA) this past week.

In one incident, a female student reported that she was in a residence hall when she was fondled by a male acquaintance.

In the other incident, a female student reported that she was asleep in a residence hall when she was sexually assaulted by another female student.

This Security Notice is being issued to remind students that:

- Sexual assault does not just occur between strangers.
- Sex without consent is sexual assault.
- Sexual assault is a crime.
- Not responding to sexual advances is not giving consent.
- Consent is actual words or actions indicating a freely given agreement to engage in sexual activity.
