

On Saturday, December 12, 2015 at 5:18 AM a resident of the Barbizon Apartments, located at 2006 Broadway, notified Metro Nashville Police of an attempted burglary. VUPD responded to the scene and searched the area for a suspect. Review of camera footage shows the suspect in the picture below attempting to open a ground level window. The incident is under investigation.

The suspect appears to be an African American male, slim build, wearing white tennis shoes, dark colored pants, a white long sleeve under shirt with a dark colored outer shirt, and a baseball cap.

Risk Reduction Tips:

- Do not allow strangers to enter your room or your complex. Do not open your door unless you can identify the person seeking entry.
- Always lock your doors and windows at night, especially if you reside on the first or second floors.
