

On August 18th, a suspicious person followed two women as they walked on Wedgewood Ave. The individual was making kissing sounds and pulling up his shirt. The same afternoon, a man matching the same description exposed himself to four women near 20th Ave. South and Grand Ave.

The suspect is described as a White male, tall and thin build, short crew cut hair cut. At the time of the incidents, he was wearing a blue polo shirt and blue jeans.

On August 25th, at 7:10 p.m. a man exposed himself to a group of women between Qdoba and The Cathedral on West End Ave.

This suspect is described as a Hispanic male approximately 38-40 with a mustache. He had a dark hat on and was driving a small navy blue older model pick-up truck filled with junk with a cargo net tailgate cover.

If you have information relating to these incidents or another incident, please call the Vanderbilt University Police Department at (615) 322-2745.

Risk Reduction Tips:

- VUPD offers walking escorts to and from your vehicle.
- Avoid isolated or dark areas
- If a stranger approaches you, maintain a safe distance – you do not have to engage in conversation
- Stay alert and trust your instincts.