Subject: Security Notice - Homicide - On Campus

On Saturday, February 21, 2015, at approximately 11:40 p.m., Vanderbilt University Police Communications received a call of possible shots fired in the area of Wesley Place garage. Responding officers located a non-affiliated male victim with injuries from an apparent gunshot wound in the garage.

Video evidence revealed that multiple vehicles had parked in this garage with the occupants going to a nearby business. As the individuals returned to their vehicles, a shooting ensued resulting in the victim's death. The suspect involved in this incident was seen fleeing the area on foot, away from campus. Metro Police are actively investigating this incident.

Risk Reduction Tips

- Report suspicious persons or activities to Police immediately.
- Have your key ready in hand to quickly access the door of your vehicle/or building.
- Avoid Isolated or dark areas.
